

December 15 at 10:44am Calling all Henniker Businesses -Tuesday December 20th at 6:15pm at Henniker Town Hall the Select board is going to be discussing signing Mark Fougere's contract. All of you who remember how hard it was to get permits from the Planning and Zoning Boards prior to Mark, will agree with me that he is a true asset to the town. At least three years in a row at the Town meeting the town refused to eliminate his position. Not only does he support the Planning Board but he also supports the Zoning Board, Town Administrator, Board of Selectmen and other committees. Don't let the minority rule, please show up and support Mark! Tuesday December 20th at 6:15pm at Henniker Town Hall the Select board

Dennis Hamel No support in there for taxpayers. Tried to destroy a Henniker small business without authority, operating in the dark, not responsible to anyone. I'm sure the current select board thinks he's just dandy. Like · Reply · 1 · December 15 at 11:56am

Jennifer McCourt Jennifer McCourt The courts disagree with you Like · Reply · December 15 at 12:24pm

Dennis Hamel Dennis Hamel No they did not. I give you credit for being smarter than that Jennifer McCourt . Nothing the courts did is remotely related to what I wrote. In truth, the courts only ruled on whether wedding functions are included in the definition of agri-tourism. When I wrote remains both accurate and true. Like · Reply · 1 · December 15 at 1:12pm

Jennifer McCourt Jennifer McCourt Dennis Hamel no it isn't . Insulting me won't make it true either. Mark is very accountable and has been instrumental in turning the Town Hall government into being business friendly. Now it is just all the people that want all premiere town services at a cut rate and NO new development that don't like business Like · Reply · December 15 at 1:18pm

Dennis Hamel Dennis Hamel What is that the old "I'm rubber you're glue" argument? Can you please cite statutory authority for a cease-and-desist letter from a part-time, contract only, town employee to a taxpayer? Can you tell me who this contract employee reports to how ofte...See More Like · Reply · 1 · December 15 at 2:48pm · Edited

Bill Marko Bill Marko I understand that the Budget committee and at least one selectboard member is concerned about his contract. If so, I would like to hear them out. I also am curious why you (Jennifer) called out "all Henniker businesses" for this. Do they have a speci...See More Like · Reply · 1 · December 15 at 9:16pm

Jennifer McCourt Jennifer McCourt Mark brings to the Town of Henniker a balance of being business friendly and protecting the towns interest. As I said earlier he has brought the municipal reputation away from being totally business unfriendly. I have no problem reviewing his contract in public but to be fair we should review all the other contracts in public. If Mark is upholding the rules the town, state and federal regulations with interpretations from legal counsel he is bound not make everyone happy. Like · Reply · December 15 at 9:33pm

Dennis Hamel Dennis Hamel Did you just put "Henniker" and "business friendly" in the same sentence? You must be doing stand up comedy. I mean that nonsense about "regulations with interpretations"... That's just hilarious! So the idea there is, what is written only applies AFTER it has been masticated. No wonder this town is so screwed up. Like · Reply · 22 hrs

Richard Mclaughlin Richard Mclaughlin I've lived in town 28 going on 29 before that deering carpentry contractor I work for some select folk and refuse a good time just my way different a lot of work out of new london I can see were your coming from if it broke and you want to fix it i will attend if not it's a waste of my time and you can continue to be a victim of your own devices just my to cents no offence intended and merry Christmas to you all is the season of hope and change Like · Reply · 13 hrs
